Certificate Program in Tribal Leadership & Governance Yocha Dehe Wintun Nation; Brooks, CA November 6-9, 2017

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This Certificate Program is designed for current and aspiring tribal leaders as well as tribal citizens and tribal employees. It offers foundational knowledge in areas relating to tribal leadership and governance, which are fundamental to successful tribal governmental operations and nation-building.

This Program is appropriate for current and developing tribal leaders in all realms of tribal leadership, government, operations, and/or organizations. All of our classes are tailored to provide an understanding of essential foundational information necessary for effectively building, managing, and overseeing tribal operations. This Program will discuss pertinent histories and laws that are critical for any tribal leader to understand when executing good decision-making.

Topics of discussion include but are not limited to: California Indian History, Tribal Sovereignty, Sovereign Immunity, Federal Indian Law & Policy, State Power Over Indian Affairs, Robert's Rules of Order, Ethical Decision-Making, and more.

Space is limited.
