

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES & SYMPOSIA

The California Tribal College (CTC) is excited to offer educational opportunities and additional resources to your tribe or community!

Below is a list of hot topics, workshops, and/or symposia that the CTC is offering to Tribes and Tribal Communities.

California Indian History

Community Health Representatives

Cultural Competency

Cultural Resources Protection

Repatriation Processes

Ethics

Successful Goal Setting

Grant Writing

Healthy Relationships

Historical Trauma and its effect on current behaviors in Indian Country

Indian Education

Positive Indian Parenting

Psychological First Aide

Emergency Response

Mind Body Spirit – Destressing

Nation-Building

Native American Veterans' Peer Counseling

Native Learning Styles

Project Management

Robert's Rules of Order

Building of Student Study Skills

Strategic Planning

Time Management Strategies

Tribal Leadership

Tribal Sovereignty

Tribal Administration & Governance

Native Children's Trauma

Native Health Disparities: Developing culturally-supported paraprofessional programs

Do you have other hot topics or key issues that you would like addressed? Let us know and we are happy to provide additional services to your Nations and Communities.

To take advantage of this opportunity or for additional information, please contact CTC Director of Institutional Development, Crystal Blue, at cblue@californiatribalcollege.com or 530.661.5767.

